Speaker key

TM            Thomas Mount

TM    For me, within Unilever one of the great benefits that it has is that it is very diverse in terms of people, but also in terms of location and markets and opportunities that you have within IT. So, I think for me personally what I really enjoy is being able to go out and experience different cultures. So I think looking forward, that would be something that, you know, I would be actively pursuing.
